

FIGHT the BITE!

Mosquito-borne Disease Summary Statistics-Utah (10/17/03)

Recommendations For Outdoor Activities:

The Utah Department of Health encourages healthy activity and behavior. Here's how you can protect yourself and your family while enjoying outdoor activities this summer: reduce your risk.

For more information on West Nile virus, go to <http://health.utah.gov/wnv>

Total Surveillance Results

Mosquito-borne disease has been detected in Utah. These results are for humans, dead birds, horses, sentinel chickens, and mosquitoes.

- Total number of counties in Utah: 29
 - Total number of counties detecting West Nile virus: 9
Carbon, Duchesne, Emery, Grand, Millard, Sanpete, Uintah, Utah, and Wayne
 - Total number of counties detecting Western Equine encephalitis: 0
 - Total number of counties detecting St. Louis encephalitis: 0

Map of West Nile virus activity in Utah: Click here

Human Surveillance

As of October 17, 2003, one human has acquired West Nile virus in Utah. The exposure occurred in Uintah county. There have been at least 32 humans tested at the Utah Department of Health Laboratory or at commercial labs. There have been six human cases of West Nile virus acquired in other states.

Dead Bird Surveillance (tested at Utah Department of Health laboratory)

Dead bird surveillance has ended for the season.

West Nile virus results:

Total number of birds submitted: 160

Total number testing positive: 4

Total number testing negative: 156

Total number of counties -

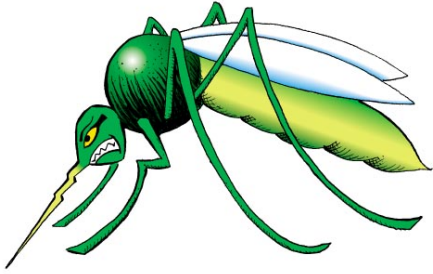

Submitting dead birds: 19 (66%)

Detecting WNV-positive Birds: 1

Grand County (2), out-of-state (2)

Mosquito Surveillance (tested at Utah Department of Health laboratory)

Total number of mosquito batches submitted: 1,915
Total number of positive batches: 2
Total number of negative batches: 1,913
Counties detecting infected mosquitoes: Utah and Uintah

- Total number of Mosquito Abatement Districts: 19
- Mosquito surveillance has ended for the season. There are no more scheduled trapping events.

Sentinel Chicken Surveillance (tested at Utah Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory)

Sentinel chicken surveillance has ended for the season.

Total number of chickens testing positive this season: 9
Total number chickens: 280
Counties detecting infected chickens: Carbon, Duchesne, and Emery

Horse Surveillance

Total number of horses tested: 78*
Total number testing positive: 33
Total number testing negative: 45
Counties detecting infected horses: Duchesne, Emery, Millard, Sanpete, Uintah, and Wayne

* 268 additional horses were tested for WNV by the Utah Department of Agriculture and Food.

